

Conway Riverfest Celebrates America's 250th Anniversary with a Star-Spangled Celebration on June 27

Multi-Platinum Selling '80s Rockers Slaughter and Vixen to Headline in Downtown Conway

Conway, S.C. – June 22, 2026 – This weekend, the Conway Chamber of Commerce's Conway Riverfest returns to downtown Conway, South Carolina on Saturday, June 27, bringing a full day of excitement, entertainment, and patriotic pride as the community comes together to celebrate America's 250th anniversary in true red, white, and blue fashion.

Conway Riverfest is once again proudly presented by Beverly Homes, a trusted local builder known for crafting quality homes with thoughtful design, personalized touches, and a commitment to lasting value in the Conway and Grand Strand area.

Since 1980, Conway Riverfest has been a beloved summer tradition, drawing tens of thousands to the heart of the city for a vibrant mix of activities. The celebration will be headlined by live performances from '80s rock icons Slaughter and Vixen, with local opening act Badlander setting the Main Stage, sponsored by Coastal Carolina National Bank, for an unforgettable night.

Formed in the late 1980s, Slaughter rose to fame with hits like "Up All Night" and "Fly to the Angels," earning multi-platinum success and a loyal fan base with their signature glam metal sound. Vixen, often dubbed "the female Bon Jovi," broke barriers as one of the most successful all-female rock bands of their era, known for chart-toppers like "Edge of a Broken Heart" and "Cryin'." Together, these powerhouse acts promise a high-energy soundtrack to a day filled with celebration. Headlining Entertainment is proudly sponsored by United Community Bank.

- Paddle Battle River Races: Back by popular demand, the Paddle Battle River Races will feature three watercraft races (kayak, canoe, paddleboard) starting at 10 a.m.
- Celebrating America's 250th Anniversary: The Horry County Historical Society will bring Revolutionary War re-enactors, a living history campsite experience, themed photo booth, a Marsh Tacky (horse) and immersive moments that honor the country's rich heritage.
- Kids Zone: From 11 a.m. to 8 p.m., your kiddos can enjoy a dedicated area featuring bounce houses, water activities, face painting, and a petting zoo, ensuring fun for the youngest attendees for a small fee presented by Thompson Farm & Nursery.
